TALL TIMBER TOUR 1996

Day 1

Saturday October 19th. Perth to Balingup by bus (241 km). Balingup to Nannup by bicycle (41km).

Meet at Richardson Park opposite the Zoo in South Perth for those travelling by bus. Alternatively, you will need to arrive in Balingup in the morning.

After a scenic ride along river banks, we arrive at Nannup and make our first camp on the grounds adjacent to the Recreation Centre.

Day 2

Sunday October 20th. Nannup to Pemberton (76 km).

We start the day riding through lush farming country and then enjoy our first views of the mighty karri. In Pemberton, head for the grounds of the Southerners Football Club.

Day 3

Monday October 21st. Rest day in Pemberton.

There are a host of things to do in this timber town. You may like to consult the local tourist bureau for an exhaustive list. Enjoy the scenic forest tramway, climb the Gloucester Tree lookout, tickle a trout in the hatchery, sample some of the local wines. Walk trails abound and there is an opportunity for swimming too.

Day 4

Tuesday October 22nd. Pemberton to Manjimup (45 km).

As far as possible we take minor roads as we continue our tour under a canopy of karri for almost the entire day. We pass the Diamond Tree and the Diamond Wood-chip Mill on the way. In Manjimup we stay at the Football Oval.

Day 5

Wednesday October 23rd. Manjimup to Bridgetown (55 km).

Again we ride through forest, today passing through the former sawmill township of Donnelly River. This collection of little wooden houses has been transformed into an attractive holiday site with the cottages available on a rental basis. The terrain between Donnelly River and Bridgetown offers you some scenic hills. We stay at the Bridgetown High School.

Day 6

Thursday October 24th. Rest day in Bridgetown.

This pretty little town, situated on the Blackwood River, offers the visitor a variety of leisure day activities. These include walking trails which should take in wildflowers, museums, a visit to the Alpaca Farm, and of course, for those who appreciate the culinary arts, there is an excellent bakery and also a vineyard close to town.

Day 7

Friday October 25th. Bridgetown to Boyup Brook (52km).

Some gentle undulations through farming country greet our riders today. Your exertions will be rewarded by the thought of a swim in the local pool which is close to our campsite at the Flaxmill.

Day 8

Saturday October 26th. Boyup Brook to Donnybrook (74 km).

This day sees the start of the Blackwood Marathon from near our campsite. On our ride we travel through general farming land into real apple country, moving along the valley of the Preston River. Donnybrook lays claim to being the home of the apple festival. Our campsite is at the VC Mitchell Park and this will also become the stage for our justly famous tour concert.

Day 9

Sunday October 27th. Donnybrook to Balingup (37 km).

We head south on quiet roads, avoiding the South-Western Highway as much as possible, and pass Kirup on our return to the starting point.

Then it's goodbye for another year!
